

Six-Week Start up

A step-by-step program for starting your business, making money, and achieving your goals!

Author: Rhonda Abrams

Who this book is for	vii
About Rhonda Abrams	viii
Introductionxiv

Week 1 Lay the foundation... 1

#1: Clarify your business concept5

Identify your personal goals	7
Spell out your business values	9
Remind yourself of your source of inspiration	12
Describe your business concept	15
Identify your strategic position	17
Decide whether you want partners	18
Decide whether you want investors	21
Consider potential exit strategies	22
Discuss the impact of starting a business with your family	24
Make an appointment with an SBDC counselor	25

#2: Create your company identity26

Choose a name	27
Check out trademarks	31
Secure a domain name	34
Consider logos, taglines, and colors	35
Meet with a graphic designer	39

#3: Get organized41

Set up files	41
Create digital records	42
Set up a contact management system	42
Keep track of your company's vital statistics	44
Keep track of expenses	44

Week 2 Get the Info You need 45

#1: Learn more about your industry48

Make a list of your research questions	48
Contact your industry association(s)	49
Do online research	52

#2: Research your target market54

Define your target market	57
Determine if there are enough customers	58

#3: Check out your competition61

Identify your competitors	61
Analyze your competition	65
Compare competitors' pricing	66

#4: Find suppliers67

#5: Consider strategic partners	70
#6: Broaden or establish your network	71
Attend a community, entrepreneur, or industry organization meeting	72
Build your online connections	75
Week 3 cut through Red tape 77
#1: Deal with legal and licensing matters	80
Choose a legal form and ownership structure for your company	81
Discuss ownership of your company	86
Apply for business licenses, permits, and identification numbers	92
Discuss collecting sales tax	96
Draw up basic contracts and other legal agreements	98
Protect your intellectual property	98
#2: Build your team and personnel structure	102
Consider your support structure	102
Decide who you need on your team	105
Figure out how much you can afford	109
Examine the use of independent contractors	110
Understand employment laws and consider your personnel policies	115
Appraise your management style	124
Week 4 take care of operations 129
#1: Find and secure a location	132
Option A: Rent space	133
Decide on the necessary attributes of your location	133
Meet with a real estate agent	137
Compare properties	137
Consider whether you need more than one location	140
Option B: Set up a home office	141
Find the space to work	141
Figure out your phone, fax, and Internet connections	142
Plan how to meet with customers	143
Decide whether you need a separate business address	143
Understand home-based office tax deductions	144
Plan ways to separate work life from home life	146
Deal with kids and pets	147
Option C: Set up an “office” in your vehicle	149
Option D: Search for shared space: Incubator, accelerators, and coworking spaces. . .	151
#2: Design your work space and production process	152
Design your layout	152
Design your production process	154
Order/install utilities and facility improvements	155
Get furniture and equipment	158
Order inventory and/or raw materials	164
3: Research and purchase computers, software, and other technology . . .	167
Develop an approach to buying technology	169
Choose a phone system	176
Choose software	177
Choose hardware	180

Get online 182
Meet your mobile needs 184
Find ways to get technical help 185

#4: Consider how you will distribute your products 185

#5: Design procedures for handling administrative tasks 190

#6: Deal with insurance 194

Week 5 Deal with Money Issues 199

#1: Deal with money matters 202

Meet with an accountant 202
Learn the lingo 203
Take stock of your personal financial situation 205
Clean up your credit 207
Set up your books 210
Establish your prices 211
Open a bank account 214
Consider accepting credit cards 215
Prepare simple financial forecasts 219
Learn about taxes 221

2: Consider financing 230

Determine whose money you want 231
Develop a business plan 238

Week 6 open Your Doors! 239

#1: Develop a marketing plan 242

Clarify your company's message 242
Come up with your Elevator Pitch 244
Decide on marketing vehicles 246

#2: Set up a simple website 264

#3: Begin online marketing 267

#4: Start making sales 279

#5: Hold your grand opening 299

#6: Look toward the future 300

Index 305

Worksheets

Goals for Starting my Business	4
My Personal Goals: The Four Cs	6
My Business Values	10
My Role Models	11
My “Bright Idea”	13
My Business Concept	14
Basic Business Description	16
Discussing Partnership Terms	20
Business Name Comparison Chart	28
Creating My Identity	38
My Research Questions	50
Research Sources	53
Who Are My Customers?	55
My Customer Profile	56
Size of My Market	59
My Competitors	63
Competitors’ Price Comparison Chart	64
Potential Strategic Partners	69
Organizations to Join	73
Types of Legal Forms of U.S. Business Organizations	84
People You’ve Given or Promised Stock	88
Stock Distribution Plan	89
Business Licenses and Permits	91
Vital Statistics	93
My Support System	103
Whom Do I Need on My Team	106
How Much Can I Afford?	111
My Personnel Policies	116
Recruiting Employees	123
My Leadership Skills	128
Things to Consider when Renting Space	134
Location/Space Comparison Chart	139
Mobile Office Plan	150
Office Move-In Checklist	153
Floor Plan Layout	156
Designing My Production Process	157
Warranties and Service Contracts	161
Furniture Shopping List	162
Equipment Shopping List	163
Supplier Comparison Chart	166
My Phone Needs	168
My Hardware Needs	171
My Software Needs	172
Comparison Chart: Internet Hosting Companies	175
Distribution Agreement	187
Retailer Comparison Chart	189
Comparison Chart: Insurance Coverage	197